The Cinema Business Awards: Celebrating a heritage of innovation in cinema

This year's categories:

The Oscar Deutsch Award

Presented for outstanding achievement in film exhibition.

The Bromhead Award

Presented for outstanding achievement in film distribution.

The Friese-Green Award

Presented to a person with an outstanding career in cinema.

The Cinema Business Movie Poster of the Year

Presented for the most effective film poster artwork – as voted for by all Cinema Business readers.

For the Movie Poster of the Year, distributors are invited to submit up to three quad posters for different movies released since 1 January 2008.

The winner will be chosen by public vote - see the October issue of Cinema Business for details.

Jpeg format versions of the posters should be emailed to info@cinemabusiness.co.uk by Friday 19th September.

How to enter

For the Oscar Deutsch and Bromhead Awards, exhibitors, distributors and others involved in the theatrical sector are invited to nominate the people or organisation they feel have made a real difference to the sector.

Nominations can be made on-line at www.cinemabusiness.co.uk or by using the form overleaf.

All entries must be received by 17th October

Presentation ceremony

The winners will be announced at an Awards Reception at BAFTA following the 11th Annual UK Cinema Industry Conference on 20 November.
